Case

25X1A

1. In answer to your request of yesterday, we have attempted to obtain information concerning Marcel Carvin. The Department of State, BI has no record of Carvin, but a check of our files revealed the following:

Marcel Carvin is reported to be heading a new movement, 1/ "Resurrection Communiste Internationale", 2/ directed against the Kremlin's nationalistic and imperialistic designs. 1/ This movement is reported to be active, to contain considerable professional talent, and to be in contact with Belgrade and with dissident Communists in Norway. [REDACTED] 25X1C

25X1C

[REDACTED] Consequently, the RCI is not thus far very effective in promoting disunity in CP ranks but is worth watching as a potential disruptive element. 2/

Marcel Carvin is reported to have openly criticized the Kremlin at the meeting of heads of European Communist parties and important Kremlin emissaries in Madrid in 1936. 1/

25X1A

2. [REDACTED] is also known to contain a reference to Carvin, and we have asked [REDACTED] Liaison Branch to obtain a copy of this telegram as it is over six (6) months old and is not available to CIA Library.

3. SO is also being asked to make available any information on Carvin which they may have.
